“Marsch Madness” in November La Lumiere School Celebrates the Start of the Basketball Season

Marsch Gymnasium, La Porte, Ind. – November 17, 2010 – On Thursday, November 11, La Lumiere School kicked off the start of the 2010/11 Basketball Season with a pep rally. The evening’s events were based on Midnight Madness, an annual event on college campuses that celebrates the first day the NCAA permits formal basketball practices. Both the women’s and men’s teams wowed the crowd with their skills as they competed in a three point contest, dunk contest and inter-team scrimmages. Junior Antonio Drummond hit an amazing 20 out of 25 three pointers and Hanner Perea received a standing ovation for his interpretation of the Superman dunk made famous by Dwight Howard at the 2008 All-Star game competition. “Marsch Madness” also served as the debut for the first Laker cheerleading squad.

About La Lumiere School

La Lumiere School is a co-educational, independent boarding and day secondary school providing a college-preparatory education based in character, scholarship and faith. Our rigorous education, personal relationships, and focus on values create a rich learning environment for students. They are known by faculty, staff and other students from all grades. This familiarity enables our students to make lasting connections, engage in academics, participate socially and define their path. Founded in the Catholic tradition in 1963, the student body consists of over 200 students from a rich diversity of backgrounds. It is situated on a beautiful rural estate, 25 miles west of South Bend, 60 miles east of Chicago, and 8 miles from both La Porte and New Buffalo. La Lumiere School is accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS) and the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA).
