La Lumiere School Honors Dr. Martin Luther King

January 27, 2011 La Porte, Ind. – On January 17, the student body at La Lumiere School honored Dr. King and his legacy of courage by hosting a speaker forum and special lunch discussion. Four speakers shared with the students their personal stories of courage and how prejudice and racism have impacted their lives and how it continues to affect us all today. A special lunch was prepared and served by parent volunteers while the students explored the topics of courage and prejudice during discussions led by faculty members.
