FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lakers Dig Pink for Cancer

La Porte, IN – October 21, 2011 – As the calendar turned to October and Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the La Lumiere Laker volleyball program joined forces with the Dig Pink organization to raise funds for breast cancer research. The team hosted the Goshen Blazers for its second annual Dig Pink match on Monday, October 17 in the Marsch Gymnasium on La Lumiere Campus. The Laker players wore pink jerseys as did most of the La Lumiere fans. A bake sale and raffle were held during the game to raise funds for the Dig Pink organization. Dig Pink is the brand name of the Side-Out Foundation, a charity that promotes volleyball events throughout the year to raise money for Breast Cancer research and community support services. Dig Pink hopes to raise $2.5 million this year. The Laker girls did their part. Though they were not victorious against the Blazers, the Laker girls did prove that they are winners!
