FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Four La Lumiere Students Nominated for the McDonald's All American Games

January 25, 2012 La Porte, Ind. – La Lumiere School is thrilled to announce that seniors Obij Aget, Rapheal Davis, Hanner Perea and Jay Simpson have been nominated for the 2012 McDonald's All American Games. 600 men and women from throughout the country, including thirteen from Indiana, received nominations. The four will face stiff competition to be one of the 24 men chosen to participate in the games. The McDonald's All American Games will be held on March 28 at Chicago's United Center.

"The McDonald's All American Games presents the finest opportunity to preview the country's best up and coming basketball talent," said Morgan Wootten, McDonald's All American Games Selection Committee Chairman. "This year's nominees represent some of the top student-athletes in the country. We are privileged to acknowledge these individuals for their success on the basketball court, in the classroom, and in the community."

About La Lumiere School

La Lumiere School is a co-educational, independent boarding and day secondary school providing a college-preparatory education based in character, scholarship and faith. Our rigorous education, personal relationships, and focus on values create a rich learning environment for students. They are known by faculty, staff and other students from all grades. This familiarity enables our students to make lasting connections, engage in academics, participate socially and define their path. Founded in the Catholic tradition in 1963, the student body consists of over 200 students from a rich diversity of backgrounds. It is situated on a beautiful rural estate, 25 miles west of South Bend, 60 miles east of Chicago, and 8 miles from both La Porte and New Buffalo. La Lumiere School is accredited by the Independent Schools Association of the Central States (ISACS) and the North Central Association Commission on Accreditation and School Improvement (NCA).
